

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1914
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1914

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

They say that all is fair in love, But on this saw don't bet; A girl can be your turtle dove And still be a brunette.

The wind Saturday morning blew down the big "Bull" sign at the Ball Park.

The many friends in old Maysville of Hon. Thomas A. Davis, will regret to learn that upon his arrival at New Orleans, en route to San Antonio, he was taken ill and compelled to go to a hospital.

MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The meeting of the W. C. T. U. which was to have been held this afternoon will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the President, on account of the meeting at the Court House this afternoon.

MRS. O. J. WOMBLE, Pres.

LET UNCLE SAM
GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more value for your money—by giving you a greater value for your money.
You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

MEMBERS OF THE
CLOVER CLUB!

HERE'S NEWS FOR YOU!

It is a well-known fact that in sowing one bushel of clover seed to six acres that an average of 66 clover seeds are sown to every square foot of ground. In broadcasting the wind and rain carry the seed in patches. Some portions have so much seed on that it cannot grow; other parts have no seed at all. Drill your seed with the Buckeye Special Alfalfa and Grass Seed Drill

Get all the seed in the ground and save half the seed. In selling you this machine we are offering the farmers of Mason county the best proposition ever made in the way of machinery. With half the seed we guarantee you a better stand.
They have been carefully tested for three seasons now and have proven thoroughly satisfactory in every way. Come in, let us show the machine to you and give you the names of those who own them and are delighted with the results obtained.

GOT AWAY WITH WET GOODS.

A prominent Market street saloonist observed a negro making away with some of his whisky about 9:30 Saturday night. He took a couple of shots at him, but the negro got away with the goods.

INJUNCTION HEARING

Postponed By Judge Cochran Until Next Saturday In The Matter of Big Railroad Tax Cases.

In the Federal Court here Saturday Judge Cochran postponed the hearing of the oral arguments in the matter of the Louisville and Nashville Railway Company vs. Auditor Bosworth and others to enjoin them from enforcing the assessment of said road in excess of $22,809,200 as set by the Court, until next Saturday, when the road's attorneys will submit briefs in the case.

The Illinois Central Railroad Co. Saturday, through Attorney E. P. Trabue, filed suit against H. M. Bosworth and other members of the Board of Valuation and Assessment of Kentucky, in which the company asks that the officers be restrained from instituting any action or procuring an indictment, warrant or other proceedings in Court to enforce the payment by complaint upon an alleged illegal assessment of taxes made by the State against the company until final orders of the court, and that a temporary restraining order be granted the company.

11,287,040 POUNDS

Total Tobacco Sales at Maysville This Season—Big Sales Last Week—Supervisor's Report

The market the past week sold 2-240,245 pounds for $231,361.23 averaging $10.33. Total to date 11,287,040 for $1,191,178.34 averaging $10.55, which we consider a remarkably good price considering the quality of the tobacco.

The market showed it will pay the prices of last season. When the quality is offered—one basket this week reached 43 cents—and quite a number over 30 cents. One crop reaching $25.24, two others over 23 cents.

The houses are cleaned up ready for the new week's business.
W. E. CLIFT, Supervisor.

January 30th, 1914.

TOBACCO NOTES.

John W. Holmes was in Maysville the first of the week marketing the large crop of tobacco grown on his farm.— Mt. Olivet Advance.

Peter Mastin, who raised a premium crop of tobacco in 1913, amounting to 4,400 pounds, has sold to R. O. Chambers of Sardis at $15 per hundred. Good for Pete.

D. S. Deming sold the following crops of tobacco at the Farmers & Planters Warehouse, in Maysville at prices ranging from 15¢ to 10¢. J. W. McCord, Taylor Berry, J. A. Wheeler, Thos. Mitchell, Alfred Henson, Omer Claypoole, Grant Paynter, M. M. Ogdon. — Mt.
Olivet Tribune.

Sales last week on the Lexington tobacco market amounted to 4,877,070 pounds at an average price of $12.11 a hundred. Total sales to date are 27-704,605, at an average price of $12.55.

Saturday the Independent Warehouse received twenty-one hogheads of tobacco from points up the river.

BOOKS UNDER BAN.

Rome, January 31.—All Catholics are forbidden to read, keep, borrow or sell the books of Maurice Maeterlinck. The ban on the author's works is included in a decision of the Sacred Congregation of the Index yesterday. "The Blue Bird," is included.

POLICE COURT DOINGS.

William White and Otto Porter, two of the East End colored population, who are accused of robbing a farmer by the name of George Hineaman, of Petersburg, of $80 a few days ago, had their examining trial before Judge Whitaker. They were bound over to the March term of Circuit Court. Bond fixed at $500, in default of which they were remanded to the county jail.

COLLIE DOG TO BE TREATED FOR RABBIES.

Bowling Green.—Dr. J. R. Davis, a prominent physician of Vine Grove, Ky., has brought to this city his fine collie dog, "Peter the Great," valued at $1,000, to be treated for the rabies by Dr. Lillian H. South, State Bacteriologist. His animal is one of the finest of its kind in the United States, having taken five premiums, one recently at the dog show in New York City.

HIGH-NECK
LONG-SLEEVE NIGHTGOWNS

Many women prefer nightgowns with high necks and long sleeves, particularly during the winter. Our collection of this style is unusually complete. Soft finished cambric and nainsook, V-necked, round or square, trimmed with pretty embroideries.

Prices Range From 50c to $1.98.

Double Panel Petticoats

More of them unpacked today. Two styles—one trimmed with lace, the other has both lace and embroidery. The double panel in front prevents the too transparent effect.
These styles would be exceptional at $1 without the double panel, with it they are astoundingly good.

The Wonderful Dollar Nightgowns

Undoubtedly you have seen some extra good dollar gowns at our sales before but these are even better than extra good. Twenty-five styles—daintily trimmed with ribbon-run embroideries and lovely laces. Some have Val casings for the ribbon. The softest nainsook is used in the making and the sewing is so carefully done it looks like the work of a dressmaker.
